

The Institute of Financial Services – Malta (ifs Malta) is the official local representative of the Chartered Institute for Securities & Investments (CISI) and will be offering a Certificate course leading to Islamic Finance (IFQ). The IFQ is a ground-breaking qualification that covers Islamic Finance from both a technical and a Sharia's perspective, providing the first international benchmark in the area of Islamic Finance. It provides candidates with an understanding of the influence of Sharia's in a business context and prepares candidates to hold key positions in the Islamic finance and takaful (Islamic Insurance) industries.

The qualification is appropriate for existing and new employees and those seeking a career in Islamic Finance. Since its launch, the exam has been taken in over 40 countries.

Fees

The fee of this course is equivalent to € 315.00 including Workbook / Course Material, Registration for Exam and Certification. The entire course consists of 9 Chapters (all modules are considered as one whole programme and the above fee is the total fee payable to follow this course programme).

Advisory Council for Islamic Finance

The IFQ was initiated by the Central Bank of Lebanon (Banque du Liban) and was jointly created by l'Ecole Superieure des Affaires (ESA) and the CISI. These bodies convened the Advisory Council for Islamic Finance (ACIF), a group of experts, to develop the qualification.

Examinations

The exams can be taken electronically at Computer Domain in Mosta. The pass mark is 70%. Candidates witting the exam through a Computer Based Test will be required to answer up to 10% additional trial questions that will not be seperately identified and do not contribute to the result. Candidates will be given proportionately more time to complete the test.

Registration Fee

A standard CISI registration fee of € 30 per student applies for candidates registering for the first time.
